NEW YORK, November 7, 1873.

The Bricklayers Strike.

The bricklayers are still on a strike. The Central Council of the United Order of American Bricklayers met last night in secret session. It is stated that a compromise was suggested that the employers should only deduct twenty-five cents from a day's pay instead of fifty cents.

Proceedings in Tweed's Case.

Judge Davis and Mr. Bartlett, of the counsel for Tweed, at the trial to-day, had another tilt. The Judge had decided one Orrell, after a long examination, competent, when Mr. Bartlett rose to comment on admissions by the witness tending to show bias.

Judge Davis peremptorily refused to hear another word on the subject, and in the course of the dialogue Mr. Bartlett said: As your Honor will not hear argument after the decision, would you inform us, when the next juror is called, that you will hear argument before the decision?

Judge Davis (angrily)—Sit down.

Mr. Bartlett—I refer your Honor to Justice Chase, and many other authorities.

Judge Davis (rapping with his gavel)—Sit down, sir; sit down. Be cautious, sir, or I will refer you to a still later case.

Mr. Bartlett—I did not hear your Honor.

Judge—Another repetition of that, or anything of that character, will fall down upon you in a way that may not be so pleasant.

The juror was then peremptorily challenged by the defence. The reference to Justice Chase was understood to be to that Judge's impeachment for irregularities on the bench.

The call of the panel was then continued until it was exhausted, when the Court adjourned till Monday next, three jurors having been obtained.

Condition of the Union Trust Company.

The total assets of the Union Trust Company are $6,327,369, and there is due depositors $5,129,185.

These are accordingly claimed as the property of the Trust Company.

Parties are being placed in the field, and the construction of the road will be rapidly pushed. Representatives of northern capitalists are here, and Colonel Thomas H. Robb, late President of the Frontier Commission, has accepted the Presidency of the road. Much local enthusiasm is excited and is powerfully stimulating immigration and the trade of this place.

ARKANSAS.

The Lonake County Tragedy—Intense Excitement—The Murdered Men Plundered.

LITTLE ROCK, November 7.—The tragedy reported in Lonake county, last night, has created intense excitement. It appears that one of the Eagles was acting in the capacity of a constable. He had writs for the arrest of the two negro hog thieves. On coming up with them they refused to surrender. As the constable's posse dismounted they were fired upon by a band of negroes in ambush, killing all three of the Eagles and severely wounding Sullivan. Dock Gray was the only one of the posse unhurt. On his escape he returned to Lonake, reported the particulars, when the Sheriff of Lonake county summoned a posse of fifty men and went to the place of the terrible deed. He arrived there at eleven o'clock last night, and found the bodies, with no one near. They had been robbed of their guns, jewelry, horses and equipments. The bodies were removed to Lonake to-day. The Sheriff of Lonake, accompanied by Hon. J. P. Eagle, representative from Lonake, whose kinsmen were killed, arrived in the city this evening, and laid all the facts before the Governor. The Sheriff of Pulaski sent out a posse of ten men to-day to effect the arrest of the murderers, but nothing has been heard from them.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

ESTIMATES FOR THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, November 7, 1873.

The Captured Steamer Virginius.

The Department of State, up to noon to-day, had received no official information concerning the steamer Virginius, further than the mere fact of the capture. The Navy Department has no official news on the subject, there being no Government vessels in the neighborhood of the place of capture. Registers granted to vessels continue until they are sold or change names. No intelligence relative to either of these points as to the Virginius has reached the Department. The books of the Treasury Department show that the register originally granted to the Virginius remains unchanged.

The news received to-day of the execution of prominent persons captured on board the Virginius occasions much surprise in all circles, it not being supposed that the trial would be so summary as it was. The subject was discussed at a Cabinet council.

Later.—Official dispatches received by the Department of State show that the Virginius was captured six miles from the coast of Jamaica. At the instance of Minister Sickles, instructions were sent from the Government at Madrid to await orders from the home Government before inflicting penalties on the passengers or crew of the Virginius. This order was probably received on the evening of the 5th or morning of the 6th, too late, as it appears from the dispatches received from Cuba to-day, to be respected.

Estimates for the Interior Department.

The estimates for the Indian service are $6,725,000, an increase over last year of $1,270,000. The total increase in the estimates of the Interior Department, including the above for the Indian service, is $1,800,000, or only about $500,000 increase for the entire department outside of the Indian Bureau. The estimates of the Department of Justice are about the same as last year. So far as can be ascertained from figures already prepared, the total of the estimates from all departments will exceed those of last year by about 5 per cent.

WILMINGTON.

Daring Attempt to Rob the Bank of Delaware.

WILMINGTON, DEL., November 7.—Great excitement was created this evening by an alarm proceeding from the residence of the cashier of the Bank of Delaware, in this city, caused by an attempt of five masked men to gag and bind the family of the cashier, with a view to robbing the bank. The men gained admittance to the house by stratagem, seized the cashier, handcuffed and threw him on the floor. They then proceeded to the dining room, where the ladies were at tea, and with drawn pistols enforced silence. One of the ladies escaping, gave the alarm, two of the police arriving in time to see the burglars escaping. Chase was given, and one of the police gained upon the retreating gang. Shots were exchanged without effect, when one of the robbers suddenly stopped, and allowed the officer to get near him. He then dealt him a murderous blow, and the officer fell senseless, seriously wounded in the head. The robbers so far have evaded arrest.

PERSONAL.

Hon. O. B. McFadden, formerly of Washington, Pa., and now of Olympia, Oregon, is in this city, on his way to the National Capital. Mr. McF. was appointed Territorial Judge of Oregon by President Pierce in 1853, and held the position during the administration of President Buchanan. He was nominated by the Democrats of his district for Congress against Hon. Selucius Garfield, who stumped our State last fall and was elected. Judge McF. will go to Washington, his old home, in company with General Hall, and will be welcomed by his old friends.

New Arrangements at Semple's.

Mr. Wm. Semple proposes on and after next Monday, 10th, to change somewhat the hours of his business, a fact which his myriads of patrons will do him a favor not to forget. On that day and thereafter the store will be opened promptly at eight o'clock in the morning and close at half-past five in the evening. This arrangement will be found, we think, satisfactory to all customers, inasmuch as it gives them daylight all through in which to make their purchases, and a full force of competent clerks, as has always been the case, will be ready to respond to their wants.

Mr. Semple has in store now a full and fresh assortment of seasonable goods, which he is offering at prices more advantageous to the purchaser than even he has ever been able to offer heretofore, and we advise our readers who are laying in their winter supplies to go there first—Nos. 165, 167 and 169 Federal street, Allegheny—and learn how to economize by getting the best of goods at the lowest prices.

A good square meal and a healthy layout can be had for 40 cents at Hollinger's, No. 210 Liberty street.

Look Out for Squalls.

The financial panic does not affect the matrimonial market, consequently weddings flourish and Furniture must be had for housekeeping. There is no house in the city where a more elegant assortment, and a better quality of Furniture is kept, than at the well-known Furniture House of Messrs. Meyer & Son, Nos. 412 and 414 Penn avenue. Go there if you want anything at all in the Furniture or Cabinet line, for they are sure to suit you, as they have a complete stock always on hand.

There is no place where a better meal, neater served or more deliciously cooked, can be had than at Hollinger's, No. 210 Liberty street.

The express trains, East and West, will connect with Buffalo express, North, and night express, South, at Red Bank. The mixed train West will connect at Red Bank with Buffalo express South and night express North. Both mixed trains will carry passengers.

....Martin Lieber a few days ago found a package of greenbacks sewed up in an old pillow, the amount of the pile being $75. He accepted the good fortune gleefully, and proceeded to put some of the bills where they would do the most good in bringing him a return of supplies for his household, but he was interrupted in his career by discovering that the bills were counterfeit. The vision of an United States Jury loomed up before him, but he managed to straighten matters out by calling upon the U. S. District Attorney, telling the story, handing over the money, and finding relief. The notes are a good imitation on their face, but the reverse is rather poorly executed. They are of the issue of 1862 and '63, and have apparently been laying in the old pillow "these long years."

BANKING HOUSE SUSPENSION.

Embarrassment of a Banking House of Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co.

Yesterday morning great surprise was created in business circles by the announcement that the well-known banking firm of Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co., on Smithfield street, had closed doors. That which at first seemed to be a street rumor, was verified about ten o'clock, by a placard posted on the door, which read:

"Owing to complications growing out of the suspension of our Eastern correspondents, we are compelled to close our doors."

The suspension was soon pretty generally known throughout the city, and everywhere occasioned surprise as well as general regret. The firm was looked upon as one in every way trustworthy, and no banking firm stood better in the estimation of those whose good opinion in such matters was worth having. The McVay's were regarded as among the most cautious and honorable gentlemen in financial circles in the city, and the sympathy expressed for them in their embarrassment was as general as it evidently was sincere.

The immediate cause of the suspension, it is said, was the failure of Lloyd, Hamilton & Co., in the east. The firm had manfully withstood all the pressure of the panic heretofore, but their connection with the New York house proved too heavy a strain when it failed.

Yesterday morning before business opened at the Clearing house they notified the First National Bank, through whom they cleared, of their inability to meet their checks, and soon after the doors were closed. The liabilities of the firm are not stated, but those who are conversant with their business express a belief that the suspension will only be temporary and that the firm will be enabled soon to resume.

It is said that there was some $10,000 of the city's money in the institution. The sum embraces the receipts from the Mayor's office for the month of October, and was to have been paid over yesterday. The Mayor's clerk was on his way to obtain the funds just as the doors were closed. We also understand that about twenty-five thousand dollars belonging to Elsworth avenue Street Improvement Commissioners also composed a portion of the deposits. This sum, however, was amply secured by outside sureties, so that the Board will not sustain any loss.

Later in the day the firm sent the following card to the press:

"Please state that owing to complications growing out of the suspension of our Eastern correspondents, we are compelled to close. We will prepare a statement for our creditors in a few days.

IRA B. MCVAY & CO.

Nov. 7, 1873."

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.

As soon as the fact of the suspension became generally known, a perfect flood of wild rumors were set afloat affecting the reputation of some of the leading banks, both in this city and Allegheny. Our reporters spent some time in thoroughly investigating these rumors, and in every instance found that they were without the slightest foundation in fact. No other bank was affected by the suspension, and aside from the embarrassment of Messrs. McVay & Co. yesterday was as easy a day in financial circles as has been known for some time.

The War is Raging.

Acknowledging the fact that money is scarce, and that every thing is coming down to a gold basis, the Boston One Price Clothing House has reduced its prices twenty-five per cent. The stock of clothing on hand, which is first-class in every respect, Mr. Rossiter has determined to sell at the best possible advantage. He believes in realizing immediately. He don't think it right to keep over his stock for next season. Now then is the time to buy clothing, when a few dollars will buy a good suit. Just think of it, an excellent suit of clothes for fifteen dollars. Don't stand there looking at the sign, walk right in and be convinced that No. 95 Smithfield street is the cheapest clothing house in the city.

THE Bank of England has advanced its rate of discount to nine per cent. A panicy feeling is apparent in the London stock market.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad Directors have declared a stock dividend of five per cent., and refused to accept the resignation of Colonel Scott.

THE several Cuban Generals who were on board the Virginius have been shot. This is the manner in which they deal with those who rebel against the Spanish Government.

WE commend the Dispatch man over the progress he is making in the study of logic. He evidently knows what logic is when he sees it. This is equal to the boy, who, when asked the name of a letter, would point to another and say, "he is just like that." The Dispatch knows logic when it sees it.

ELSEWHERE we print the final report of the Chairman and Treasurer of the Memphis and Shreveport Relief Committee, showing an aggregate sum raised by the Committee of $5,618.49. Besides this, considerable contributions have been made by various Societies, Churches and individuals, including the Firemen, Police, Masons, Odd Fellows, etc.

THE capture of the steamer Virginius by a Spanish gunboat is the occasion of great jubilation at Havana. The Virginius had been rendering good service to the Cuban cause, but her commander, and all on board were running a fearful risk, as the Spaniards show no mercy in a case of the kind. It is probable that all on board will suffer death as pirates.

SUNSET COX is one of the fortunate Democratic politicians. He has not only been elected to Congress to fill the term of James Brooks, but he has the warmest commendations of the Republican press. The genial good nature of Sunset, and his gentlemanly and scholarly qualities, make him a general favorite. He will be heartily welcomed back to the National Capitol.

THE question whether prize fights shall be reported as news has been more or less discussed, the prevailing opinion among newspaper men being that it is necessary to do so, it being news. But the Philadelphia Press declares that it has been its policy never to allow the name of a prize fighter to appear in its columns, even as news. It claims that were this policy generally followed, it would have the effect of driving the prize ring out of existence. We incline to favor this view, and certainly commend the object aimed at.

VERY much to the astonishment of those who have watched the debate in the Canadian Parliament over the Pacific Railway scandal, the ministry have been defeated,—not by a vote of Parliament, as Sir John Macdonald did not wait for this, but by the resignation of the old ministry. Mr. MacKenzie, the leader of the opposition has been commissioned Premier, and is at work forming a new ministry. The victory is a surprise to all. On the morning after the speech of Sir John Macdonald, it was conceded, even by the opposition journals, that the ministry would succeed. A triumph for the opposition under these circumstances, is all the more surprising and gratifying.

THE narrow, if not illegal, policy of the Constitutional Convention in ordering the circulation of the new Constitution through the medium of slips or hand-bills, meets with severe reprobation. It is contrasted, on economic grounds with the course pursued in voting salaries of $2,500 each, when the law which created the Convention limited the salaries to $1,000. As nearly as we can learn, the papers will generally refuse to circulate the document through their issues. In condemning the action of the Convention in this particular, we do not wish to be understood as opposing the new Constitution framed by it. We think that this, while not by any means perfect, was worthy better treatment than it received at the hands of its authors.

THE liberal estimates made for the expense of the government for the coming year will, if we do not misjudge, be razeed when Congress meets. The Committee of Ways and Means cannot be unaware of the fact that the revenues of the Government must suffer, in common with business of all kinds, and that it, along with others, must retrench its expenses. The hint given of increased taxation, in some form, will prove fatal to the Republican party, if adopted as a policy. During the war the people willingly endured the burdens of taxation, even when they seemed oppressive. But now retrenchment is necessarily the word with all, and the Government must follow suit. The work on the war vessels might cease, the expenses of the Departments ought to be reduced. At all events, additional taxation cannot be safely imposed.

HOME TROUBLES.

We regret, exceedingly, the failure reported yesterday, and hope that it will not indicate a beginning of disasters to our business and banking houses. Undoubtedly the business of the country is undergoing a great strain. The shrinkage in values and available capital can only result in the crippling and embarrassing of houses that were using, not merely all their available capital, but a line of discounts as well. The business houses of Pittsburgh are as firm as any in the country, and our banks, at the present, are doing their utmost to aid them in their time of need. We hope, however, that so far as possible, where embarrassment comes to any house, there will be every possible effort to save it. The moral effect of failures is very bad at the present. Of course, we are aware of the fact that all are engaged in a very vigorous struggle, and it may not be possible to help a suffering neighbor; but where such a possibility exists, we hope aid will be extended.

BOTH SIDES.

One result of the labors of the Senate Committee on Transportation is the agitation of the question of cheap freights. The importance of cheap methods of transportation is shown by data furnished to the Committee. The general statement is that the Northwestern States produce 1,000,000,000 bushels of cereals annually on 44,000,000 acres, of which 300,000,000 bushels, or 8,000,000 tons are a surplus for export; that the variable and often excessive transportation charges render this less profitable to the grower than it should be, and that other methods of transportation at lower prices are absolutely required. The gravamen of the struggle is between the water routes and the railways. This is one side of the question.

The other side is that presented by a gentleman of New Orleans, who urges that the English demand for 80,000,000 bushels is almost the only foreign order, and that Northern Europe has been so much developed by railways recently that we cannot expect to increase our sale there, whatever we do. At the current ratio of increase in production the Western grain crop will be 2,000,000,000 bushels annually in twenty-five years, of which England will take but one bushel in twenty. The southern market cannot absorb the residue; and the only relief is to be found in converting it into manufactures; condensing it in workshops in the same manner in which England transmutes 350,000,000 bushels of grain, other provisions, cotton and iron into $2,000,000,000 annual exports and the maritime tonnage they sustain. Last year four cities of the Mississippi valley and lake basin showed what they could do in this direction by producing $500,000,000 of manufactures, and this condensation went far toward overcoming the transportation trouble. This is the other side of the question. The immediate need is for cheap transportation; but that we must ultimately build up manufactures at the West is certain.

OUR COMMERCIAL MARINE.

There is a wonderful tendency, on the part of trade of all kinds, to provide for itself in this country, if left without unnecessary interference on the part of Congress. We were of the opinion, and still are, that had Congress properly protected our ship-building interests just after the war, we would have had our commercial supremacy restored, in large measure, some years since. But now that it has deferred action so long, there is evidently no need of interference at this time.

We are gratified at the course pursued by the National Board of Trade, in its recent session in Chicago on this subject. The Board would not approve some resolutions which were proposed asking for bounties on American-built ships, for the excellent reason that ship-building in this country is reviving without the aid of artificial stimulants. Nor would it adopt another resolution looking to the exemption from custom's dues of ships' stores, and so forth, for vessels engaged in foreign trade. In short, the advocates of special legislation in this matter were very substantially snubbed, but when the Board came to consider the question of admitting to American citizenship (speaking in a nautical sense) vessels purchased from foreigners, the vote was given in favor of such admission on payment of a reasonable duty. This is no more than right, and is in accordance with the prevailing practice of maritime nations. It was stated before the Board, and the statement agrees with others which have been widely circulated, that there is really renewed activity in the ship yards along the North Atlantic coast. The fact seems to be that the labor strikes in England have had their natural result in so raising the cost of ship building that the balance is now in our favor. Labor there is scarcer and dearer. Here it is more abundant and cheaper. There coal and wood are becoming more and more costly. Here the reverse is the case. Moreover, there begins to be a question whether iron ships are upon the whole so good as wooden ones, and that, too, is in our favor. This last would seem to receive confirmation from a paragraph which has been going the rounds about a vessel which was built in Philadelphia before the Revolutionary War, and she is still as sound as ever, notwithstanding she has been voyaging in all seas throughout her very long life.

Congress has chosen to defer the consideration of this subject, and has refused peremptorily to take action upon it, in the past. It sometimes happens that just at the wrong time, it becomes benevolent, and liberally concedes favors and franchises, when it ought to withhold. This, we fear, may prove to be the case during the coming Winter. Congress will do wisely, having deferred the subject so long, to leave the entire business to the working of the natural laws of trade.

KEYSTONE BREVITIES.

HENRY PATRICK, who chloroformed his employer, Mr. Merriam, at the meat market, Titusville, in August last, and then robbed his victim of $50, was tried at Meadville and found guilty.

THE employes of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, at the Washington and Nottingham Collieries, Plymouth, Luzerne county, received half pay on Friday for work done in September.

THE Lebanon Valley Standard: The romance of Harbaugh's "Alt Schulhaus an der Krick" has been spoiled by the conversion of an old school house near the west branch of the Perkiomen creek into a hog pen.

THE amount of coal received by the D. L. & W. R. R. Co. from the mines of Scranton for the month of October was 297,000 tons. The largest amount ever received by this company for a single month was in May last, when it amounted to 300,000 tons.

MR. HOWARD, engineer at the Port Bowkley colliery, at Wilkesbarre, lost himself in the mine Friday morning. Being missed from his post, search was made for him about eleven o'clock, and about one o'clock he was found in one of the old workings.

A STORE was broken into at Cooperstown, near Oil City, Tuesday evening by burglars, and three hundred dollars worth of goods stolen therefrom. The goods taken were boots, cloths, overcoats and other articles usually found in a country store.

BEARS seem to be unusually plenty in this county this season. Four have been killed in the neighborhood of Rockton, within the past few weeks. Others are in the same neighborhood, and efforts are being made to capture them.—Raftsman's Journal.

A WOMAN with the outlandish name of Mrs. Rebecca Gorsuch has been bound over to answer the rather serious charge of setting fire to the barn of a Mr. Decker, in Henderson township, Huntington county. The structure, with its contents, was entirely consumed.

THE anthracite coal production for the present year, up to last week, show an excess of nearly 400,000 tons over the produce of last year. All things considered, that is not a very bad exhibit. The bituminous shipments show an excess over last year of nearly 800,000 tons.

ON the recent pay day at Glamorgan Iron Works, Mifflin county, the employes received due bills in lieu of cash. These are payable in six months, and bear six per cent. interest. Some of the workmen who needed money were compelled to submit to a shave of from ten to fifteen per cent. on this paper.

A SERIOUS affray occurred on Sunday last, in Georges township, Fayette county, along the foot of the mountain, at a place where it is said ardent spirits are vended, at which place a man by the name of Swaney and two persons named Sutton, engaged in the manly art, whereby two of them were seriously hurt.

ON last Wednesday night, while attending church at Wallaceton, Clearfield county, a man pulled off his coat and threw it down on the seat, when the whole congregation was startled by the discharge of a revolver, which he was carrying in his coat pocket. The ball came very near striking a boy who was in the church.

THOS. E. MOORE, of the City Hall Store, South Main street, Wilkesbarre, decamped with his goods on Saturday evening for parts unknown, thereby defrauding his creditors. The two girls who were in his employ are creditors to the amount of fifty odd dollars. The wagon containing his goods was last seen by the police on the road to Ashley.

SEVERAL intoxicated individuals were enjoying themselves in a festive kind of way on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad, opposite the Mechanical Works, Johnstown, Tuesday. When the Way Passenger train came along they recklessly stood on the track upon which the train was approaching, compelling the engineer to come to an almost dead stop.

THE Tidioute Journal understands that hotel keepers in some places in that county, it is said, ask their guests if they will have their rooms "furnished" or "unfurnished." If furnished, the charge is half a dollar extra. The furniture consists of a bottle and something in it and a glass. If the guest will persist in swallowing the hotel furniture, how can the landlord help it?

THE Hollidaysburg Register describes a novel process of raising money for Sunday school purposes, adopted by the Baptist Sunday school of that place. In the spring the Superintendent of the Sunday school gave each of the scholars a number of grains of corn, with instructions to plant it. Last week it was collected and sold to the highest bidder, and quite a handsome sum was realized.

LAST week a couple were made happy in McConnellstown, Huntington county, by taking upon each other the vows prescribed for the intimate relationship they are hereafter to assume. Their united ages are one hundred and forty-five years. The blooming bride has observed sixty-five Summers pass over her head, while the frosts of seventy-eight Winters have silvered the hair of the party of the other part.

AN AFFRAY occurred in the vicinity of Fairchance Furnace, near Uniontown, last Sunday; in which a young man got severely wounded by the application of a piece of iron, administered over his head. The understanding there is that his conduct was entirely unwarranted and without cause or provocation. The wise and intelligent men say he ought to be punished to the full extent of the law.

A WELL-TO-DO farmer of Crawford county went to church with his family last Sunday, leaving his premises and seventy dollars in currency behind. The sermon proved interesting, and the good man returned home feeling much edified thereby. But the happy frame of mind quickly gave place to a strong desire to swear at somebody, when he found the house had been entered and the money gobbled up during his absence.

AT the Moosic Powder Mills, near Gibsonburg, Luzerne county, a terrible explosion occurred on Tuesday morning, killing three men named Thomas Abbott, Martin Hanoply and John Thomas. Two hundred kegs of powder exploded and the men were burned to a crisp. Hanoply and Thomas each leave a wife and four children. A man named Shaw, who was in the cellar of the building when the explosion occurred, escaped unhurt.

AT the coming Court the citizens of New Bridgeport, Bedford county, will petition to have their village incorporated as a borough. Since the completion of the R. & B. Railroad that town has improved very rapidly, and the prospects for a rapid growth in the future are very flattering. There is no doubt that the Court will grant their prayer, and that in a short time the new borough administration will go into effect.

LAST Wednesday, while threshing with the cleaner at the barn of Mr. John Flowers, in North Huntingdon township, Westmoreland county, a young man named John Miller stepped on the thresher for the purpose of cleaning off the apron carrying the screenings into the machine, when his feet slipped into the thresher, and was caught by the cylinder, but was instantly jerked away by Michael Kunkle, who had sufficient presence of mind to take into consideration the situation at once, and thus saved Miller's life, but with the loss of a boot and the toes of one foot.

ON MONDAY night last, between ten and eleven o'clock, four rowdies attacked Capt. J. B. Krepps, proprietor of the Monongahela House at Brownsville, with stones and other missles, as he was entering his hotel, causing some ugly wounds about the Captain's head, when his son came to his rescue and dispersed the "ruffs." They then crossed over to the establishment of Mr. William Britton, where they used him in a similar manner, and were not disposed to be quelled until Mr. Britton prepared himself with a revolver, when the nice young men made good their retreat.

JUDGE HARDING, Commissioner Williams, ex-Treasurer Miller, and a few friends were out hunting for deer on the head streams of the Lehigh last week, and stripped up a large bear. Nearly all of the party had the favor of one or more shots at old bruin, and still there was not enough lead lodged in his body to keep him from running off. The peculiar motion of the beast, and the blood which could be seen along where he ran, showed that he was badly wounded. They were unusually unlucky in not getting a deer. The dogs persisted in driving the deer in the wrong place, or the hunters persisted in standing on the wrong runways. The deer all escaped; so did the bear.

MR. MOSES THOMPSON, who lives on the Wapsononock road, two or three miles from Altoona, on Monday discovered a deer in his grain field. He forthwith repaired to his house and hauled down his rifle from the niche above the chimney, and then crawled in range of the animal. After two shots, the first of which only wounded it, he brought it to the ground. It proved to be a very large specimen, of the weight of nearly 200 pounds. The wheat field on which the deer was trespassing was only a few hundred yards distant from Mr. Thompson's house. It is no uncommon thing to see a deer in a wheat field, but it does not frequently occur that a deer is killed in a wheat field so near as this to a tenanted human habitation.—Altoona Tribune.

A TERRIBLE accident occurred at Scotch Hill, Clarion county, Tuesday afternoon, November 4. A Presbyterian church was being raised, and while the upper frame was being fastened, the board on which the "summer" rested broke, throwing the whole frame to the ground. There were nineteen men on the building at the time, five of whom clung to the side, and three fell thrugh to the basement, all escaping unhurt. The remaining eleven fell to the ground on the logs, etc., and were all more or less hurt. Those injured most seriously were S. Imhoof, Daniel Steiner and Elijah Barlett. It is feared Mr. Imhoof's injuries will prove fatal. The others hurt are as follows: James Simpson, Robert Porter, Samuel Henry, Wm. Henry, D. Watson, Esq., H. Fitzcharles, A. C. McCombs, John Lewis.

BURSTING OF A BOG.

Strange Scene of Devastation in Ireland.

Mr. W. L. Trench, writing to the London Times to appeal to the charitable for aid for certain unfortunate families, gives this account of the bursting of an Irish bog. He says:

"I have just returned from inspecting one of the most pitiful scenes of the sort it has been my fate to witness since I saw the remains of the village of Visp, in the Rhone Valley, Switzerland, after its destruction by flood some years ago.

"The scene to which I refer is the result of the bursting of a bog, situated about three miles east of the town of Dunmore, in the northern part of Galway county. Heretofore this bog was connected with the Dunmore river, at Dunmore, by a small stream called the Corrabel river, flowing through a continuation of pasture and tillage lands in its course. The level of the upper surface of the bog was formerly 260 feet above the sea, and that of the water at Dunmore 190 feet, showing a fall of 70 feet. Up to a fortnight ago this bog presented the usual appearance of most of our undrained Irish bogs, i. e., its skirts, adjoining the arable lands, consisting of high turf banks, its center being exceedingly wet and spongy.

"On the first of October the farmer occupying a farm on the Corrabel stream, nearest the bog, was digging his potatoes, when he suddenly observed a brown mass slowly approaching him. He left his spade in the ground and went for the neighbors; on his return the mass (which was the moving bog) had half covered his potato field, and completely hidden from sight his field of corn, with the exception of a few 'stocks' situated on a knoll; they still remain an island in the middle of a scene of desolation. This was but the commencement; since then the bog has continued to advance in a rolling mass, continuing its course right down the valley to Dunmore, burying on its way three farm houses and covering at least one hundred and eighty acres of pasture and arable land to a depth, in some places, of six feet. The unfortunate occupiers of the three farms have been turned, by this visitation of Providence, farmless and homeless, with their families, on the world.

"At Dunmore a small bridge has been removed, near the junction of the Corrabel stream with the Dunmore river, to afford relief to the lands up the valley, and a bog-laden torrent is being discharged into the latter river. The worst may be said to be over, but the discharging powers of that river will be materially affected by this influx of solid matter. The source of this disaster presented a wonderful appearance. The subsidence at the discharging point cannot be less than about 35 feet. The extent of the bog affected is most clearly defined by a series of black 'crevasses,' where the upper crust of the bog has, by the subsidence below, been torn asunder. The whole assumes the form of a crater half a mile in diameter.

"With considerable difficulty we piloted our way to the centre where we found the brown liquid bog boiling out like a stream of lava, and feeding the moving mass in the valley below. At the point where the bog burst, the turf banks were forced right over and round on either side, and assumed somewhat the appearance of 'moraines.'

"This, and similar disasters to which this country is liable, must be attributed to the absence of a complete and good system of arterial drainage. A similar catastrophe occurred a couple of years ago, accasioned by the backwater of the River Suck, near Castlerea."

THE excitement in regard to the explosion of the First National Bank of Mansfield seems to be increasing. On Thursday of last week, Hickox, the President, was arrested for embezzlement, and lodged in jail, but was afterwards bailed out.

IT is said by those who are competent judges, that the work at Swine Creek, on the P. & Y. R. R., for a distance of about three miles, exceeds—in depth of cuts and hight of fill or embankments, anything of the kind in the State. The grandeur of the scenery there will well repay a visit, and the magnitude of the work done at this point will readily explain the delay in the completion of the road.—Mahoning Register.

CONVERTED SOUTHERNER.

Northern Humanity at Memphis.

The St. Louis Democrat says the following letter, which will be read with peculiar interest, proves abundantly that there is yet need for money and relief of all kinds in Memphis, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. It is addressed to Colonel George A. Hayward, Secretary of the Safe Deposit Company, and its author is Colonel L. W. O'Bannon, the Inspector of the Board of Health of Memphis, and a prominent and brave soldier during the war in the Confederate army:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 29, 1873.—My Dear Colonel: The money will be properly applied. We have had a hard time here; but I think it is now over. God grant it! I could tell you of things I have witnessed here that would make even a frontierman look aghast. But why repeat them? They are passed, so let us look to the future and the bright side of what is to be. God in His wisdom has laid a heavy hand on us. We have deserved it. Known natural laws have been and are still being violated. The penalty has and will most surely follow. We have been a dirty people, and, I fear, will continue to be, even after the terrible lessons that have been taught us. Do not understand me to complain of this people. They are negligent, but they meet their fate like good soldiers. We have a noble set of men here, who have been devoted to the good of this plague-stricken city. As fast as one falls another is ready to step in to fill the gap.

"The plague has done more to reconcile me to the Union than anything else on earth could have done. For one I no longer know North or South. I find Northern men true to us in our distress. Here and elsewhere they have proven themselves brothers. Henceforth they have my heart and hand with them, and God grant that I may be spared to act, and show my love by my acts, rather than by words. The Northern men with us have been as true as steel, and their cities have done wonders for us. Conduct like theirs has done more to conquer me than all the guns Grant could bring to bear.

"We have had some good cold weather, and our Board will invite our absent citizens to return to their homes. I pray God the invitation may not be premature."

A DISPATCH from Fort Sill says that the Indians burned Whalley's rancho, near the Red River Station, on Monday, and murdered one man, and drove away considerable stock. Two men belonging to the surveying party are reported to have been killed thirty-five miles from Fort Richardson, on Saturday. The Mescalero Apaches, from New Mexico, are raiding in Texas, committing murders and driving of large numbers of cattle. The Comanches on the reservation near Fort Sill have not and cannot deliver up the five men stipulated for at the Fort Sill Council, and as a consequence their annuity goods and food will be withheld after this week, which, it is expected, will drive them out on the war path.

A DETERMINED stand has been taken by the Austrian Jesuits against the State. Father Beel, general of the order, has directed the members in Innspruck not to conform to the demands of the Government in regard to the theological faculty. The Jesuit professors will leave the University, and their places will be supplied by lay Professors.

SUITS have been commenced by the Springfield (Ill.) Railroad and Warehouse Committees against the Chicago & Northwestern and Illinois Central Railroad Companies for violation of the railroad law. It is understood that suits will also be instituted against several other roads as soon as the Attorney General can prepare the papers in the cases.

A LETTER numerously signed has been forwarded from New York to President Grant, urging him to use his authority and power to relieve the passengers on board the captured steamer Virginius from imprisonment and impending execution.

RUPTURE.
There are hundreds of people ruptured who don't know what ails them; there are others who don't know what to do for it, nor where to look for relief or a cure: others again who have had rupture for years, under the false notion that there can be no danger in the future, as there has been none in the past. This is a fatal delusion, and there is no knowing what day the rupture may become strangulated, and call for a painful and dangerous surgical operation. To avoid so fearful a result, make application to some competent person to have a truss applied. Will a truss cure me, you may ask. Very often it will, but it will always retain the parts so as to make you secure and safe from danger, and at a cost so trifling as to be hardly worth mentioning when compared with the enormous risk you run in letting it alone. Dr. Keyser, at his office, 167 Liberty street, is provided with every appliance suitable to the retention and cure of this terrible evil. He has trusses at a price as low as can be obtained anywhere in the country, and in every variety and quality—of such vast variety, that the most difficult and long standing cases, of years duration, are made manageable and brought within the province of cure. Let no one deceive themselves into the belief that rupture is never curable; but worst than all, let none consent to "let alone" cure.

Speedily Cured.—All Forms of Venereal, Private and Nervous disease at the old established Girard Medical Institute, No. 172 Second avenue, between Smithfield and Grant streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.
NO CHARGE UNTIL CURED.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia and all Urinary diseases are cured in the shortest possible time that will insure permanent relief. Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal weakness and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse or excess in maturer years, and which produce some of the following effects, as emissions, blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, constipation, despondency, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, loss of memory, and sexual power, and which unfits the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing insanity and consumption, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.
This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and special diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.
Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible, it is best to visit the city for personal consultation, or address:

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCIAL.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY EVENING, November 7, 1873.

Finances to-day, both in our local, as well as Eastern markets, look by no means cheerful. The temporary suspension of a banking house here, and rumors of additional financial troubles in other quarters, has again been a reason for shaking public confidence. The fact is that the effects of this panic are just beginning to be seen and felt in certain quarters. Our manufacturing interests are suffering, and unless some means of relief are soon devised, will be compelled to curtail their operations very largely. Rates are high—too high. We have heard to-day that good paper was offered at 2 per cent. a month to one of our banks, and the bank refused to take it. Poor paper cannot be placed at all, and even good names are not easy of sale.

Local stocks are changing hands quite freely, though at reduced figures. The decline in bank stocks is about five per cent. from the prices ruling at the beginning of the panic. Some investers are carefully looking around and buying up good stocks when they can get them cheap. Now is the time for those having loose money to buy some of our best local stocks at fair figures.

In New York, stocks have been weak at lower figures, and closed at a decline of several per cent.

Gold has advanced from yesterday's prices, and closed at 107⅜.

Pennsylvania Railroad stock shows a slight recovery to-day, closing at 43.

NEW YORK, November 7, 1873.

The day closed with a very unsettled feeling. All sorts of rumors are afloat in regard to the financial situation in London, one of which was that discounts in open market were 10 per cent. Rumors affecting the stability of various mercantile and financial houses also added to give a feeling of apprehension. Money loaned at 6 per cent. to 1-32, and closed at 7. Foreign exchange was firmer, though irregular, on account of the London situation; sixty days 105½, sight 108½, and commercial bills 103@105. Gold closed firm at 107⅝@107½. Carrying rates were 3 per cent. to 1-32. Clearings, $45,750,000. Governments were more active, and closed stronger. State bonds were quiet and nominal. Treasury disbursements, $344,000. Customs receipts, $255,000. Stocks were weak and lower, ranging ½@3½ decline, and closed irregular, though at a slight recovery from the lowest point of the day. The following are the principal extremes: New York Central, 77¾@80; Erie, 35½@39½; Lake Shore, 60⅜@62⅜; Wabash, 34½@36⅜, Rock Island, 84⅜@86; Western Union, 45⅜@48⅜, and Pacific Mail 26⅜@27⅜. Financial writers in the evening papers say a general feeling of dissatisfaction prevails in regard to the action of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad in declaring a scrip dividend of five per cent. when a cash dividend of six per cent. was expected, and fully warranted by the business of the company.

The rate for money at the Stock Exchange on Government securities is 8 per cent. There are decided symptoms of a panic in the stock market here. All quotations have fallen off. Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 7, 1873.

General business continues dull and the outlook does not seem to be improving; the feeling in commercial circles does not appear as hopeful as it was a week ago. The numerous suspensions and failures within the time in question have had a depressing influence. The demand for almost everything is very much restricted, as people are economizing there resources as much as possible, while in regard to values we have no important changes to record.

APPLES—In fair demand and steady with regular sales at $1.50@2.50 per brl. for common to fair, and $3 to $3.50 for prime to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—Is selling all the way from 65 to 75c ℔ gallon, as to quality.

BUTTER—The market is generally reported a little slow and it is difficult to obtain extreme quotations, except for small lots; the hucksters won't pay over 23 to 25 for the very best roll and they succeed in obtaining it along with lower grades at these rates. Prime to choice by itself, may be quoted at 26 to 28, and fancy at 30.

BEANS—Quiet; $2.25@2.75 ℔ bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Sales at 4½c.

CIDER—Is quotable at $7 to $10 per brl. according to quality and size of barrel.

CRANBERRIES—Selling at from $10 to $15 per brl. according to quality.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet but prices are fully sustained; standard brands 13½@13¾ by the car load, and 1@2c additional for smaller lots.

CHEESE—Prime Ohio Factory still quoted at 14@14½ to the trade, and 14½@15 in a small way.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues quiet and nominally unchanged. Apples, 6 to 8c. Peaches, prime halves, 10@12.

EGGS—The arrivals continue fair for the season, and the supply is fully up to the demand; quoted at 25 to 28, the outside figure for fresh—dealers generally report that it is difficult to obtain 28.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchanged. We continue former quotations, $6.75@7.25 for spring wheat flours, and $7.50@8.00 for red winters. Rye Flour, $5.25@5.50.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and drooping, but nominally unchanged; $1.40@1.45 for red; $1.47@1.50 for amber, and $1.55@1.57 for white. Oats still quoted at 45 to 47, as to quality—some dealers quote at 48, it but is now considered above the market. Shelled Corn is not quotably lower, 57@58 on track, and 59@60 free in elevator. Ear is still quoted at 48@50 for new, and 58@60 for old. Rye, 85@88 cts. Penna fall Barley, $1.35@1.40.

GROCERIES—Importers are still pretty stiff in their pretensions, most of them professing to believe that the statistical position justifies the present and even higher rates, but the market is very dull, and this, together with the fact that stocks, both in this country and at the point of production, are steadily accumulating, is against them. Sugars continue very dull, and the tendency, notwithstanding the recent heavy decline, is still downward.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 11½c; Crushed, Powdered and Granulated, 11¼; Standard A, 10¾; B, 10½; Ex. C, 10⅜; Franklin Ex. C, 10. Other Yellow Sugars, 7½ to 9¼ as to quality.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 26½@27; good to prime 25½@26c; fair, 23@24c. Roasted one lb. packages 30c; loose, 29½.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 75@78c; Prime 70 to 72.

SYRUPS—Extra White Drips, 70c; Sugar Drips, 70c; Amber, 60@65; lower grades, 35@40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina 9½; Patna, 8⅜; Rangoon, 7⅜@8.

HOMINY—Sales at $4.50@5 ℔ brl.

HONEY—Is selling at 33@35c per ℔.

HAY—The supply of wagon hay in Allegheny to day was rather larger, and prices as compared with last week, were a shade lower, ranging from $30 to $33. Tight pressed baled is still quoted at $32@33, and loose pressed at $23@25, as to quality.

NUTS—Chestnuts dull $4@4.50 per bushel. Hickory Nuts, $1@1.50. Black Walnuts, 50@75c.

ONIONS—$4@4.50 per barrel.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows may be fairly quoted at 95@$1 per bushel on track by the car load, and the supply is scarcely equal to the demand. Jersey Sweets are in very limited supply, and prices are advancing—they are said to be worth $5 per barrel in Philadelphia.

POULTRY—Live chickens continue dull and prices are lower, 40@50c per pair. Dressed Chickens, 12@13c ℔ lb. Dressed Turkeys, 16@18.

PEAS—$1.75@2 ℔ bushel.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ℔ lb, 13½, Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 10; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 12c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 16. Beef tongues, $7.50 ℔ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 9c. Bacon Rib Sides, 9c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 9½c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 10c. Mess Pork, $15.50 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in tres, 9. Do, half bbls, 9½c. SALT—Is quoted at $1.60 ℔ brl. by the car load, and $1.85 in a jobbing way.

RAGS—Quoted at 3@3½c.

SEEDS—Flax Seed is still quotable at $1.97@2 per bushel. Nothing doing in Clover or Timothy.

WHISKY—Highwines, 93@94c per gallon.

PITTSBURGH IRON AND NAIL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 7, 1873.

The market for finished irons, while it cannot by any means be termed active, is all that can reasonably be expected under existing circumstances; the mills are all in operations, some few of them are still working double turn, and from what we can learn, none of them contemplate shutting down for the present at least. The outlook, of course, at this particular time is not very bright, as financial matters, instead of improving seem to be getting worse; money instead of becoming easier seems to be growing tighter, but it is hoped that there will soon be a change for the better, notwithstanding the prospects at this writing are not very encouraging. Some of our manufacturers report that their collections during the past week or two have been even better than they had expected; also, that there is a very fair demand, but they are apprehensive in regard to the future, consequently they are determined to keep their business as well upward as possible; in other words, they could increase their sales considerably if they were willing to pursue the same policy that prevailed prior to the panic. Now, however, orders from long winded and doubtful buyers are rejected, and only those who have the ready cash, or are known to be prompt pay, on short time, can buy in this market. Prices have undergone no change. The wool trade is falling off, but this it usually does at this season of the year, hence it creates no surprise.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY,
FRIDAY, November 7, 1873.

CATTLE.

There was little or nothing done to-day, although the pens were almost entirely cleared, except of through cattle, having either been sold or shipped on in first hands; there were quite a large number of through cattle belonging principally to Morris, but they, of course, were not for sale in this market. The outlook, if anything is worse than it was at the beginning of the week in consequence of the unsettled and unsatisfactory condition of financial affairs, which seem to be in a worse shape now than at any time since the panic set in; operators generally are very much discouraged, and it is almost certain that trade is destined to be very unsatisfactory for some weeks to come. It was thought that prices, especially for prime stock, had certainly about touched bottom, but the indications now are that there will be a further decline. We are sure that cattle could not have been sold for as much today as they brought yesterday, and operators generally are very apprehensive that there will be a further shrinkage next week. It is true, owners are losing heavily at prevailing rates, but there is no help for it, it is better to look the matter right square in the face. No improvement can reasonably be expected, no matter if the arrivals do fall off, until the money market commences to work easier. It is almost out of the question. Extra shipping steers averging 1100@1600 pounds cannot be quoted above 5½@5.65, and some 75 or 80 cars purchased for shipment to Philadelphia, it is said 5½ was the highest price paid, although it is but proper to state that there were very few strictly prime cattle here this week. Prime 1200@1300 quotable at 4¾@5¼. Good 1000@1100, 4@4.50. Inferior to common, 2.50@3.50. These are low rates, but as already intimated, a still further depreciation is almost certain.

HOGS.

The hog market is also considerably demoralized, and prices have still further declined; fair to good Yorkers, 3.50@3.75; Philadelphias, 4@4.10. There were quite a number in the pens to-day unsold, and there is no apparent falling off in the receipts, hence, with the supply accumulating and the demand diminishing, as is always the case on a declining market, dealers were predicting a still further decline within the next 24 hours. The Allegheny Pork Packing Company purchased several bunches at prices ranging from 3⅜ to 3¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There has been little or no movement in this class of stock within the past 24 hours, and while there has been no quotable change in prices, taking the latest sales as a basis, it is expected that there will be a decline next week, providing there is anything like an average supply. Prime to extra fine wool, 95@100 ℔s, 4¾@5; 85@90, 4¼@4¾; 75@80, 3.50@4; 70, 3@3¾. Erisman reports having bought 15 cars for shipment to New York, at prices ranging from 3¾ to 5¼—the latter figure was paid for an extra bunch of open wool, averaging 118 ℔s.

PIG IRON AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, Nov. 7, 1873.

There have been some few small sales during the past week, but, from all that we can learn at this writing, none of any importance; several commission merchants report that, during the time in question, they have done nothing—that they had little or no inquiry, and that it is useless, in the present unsettled condition of affairs, to make any special effort to sell. The mills are still running, single turn, but they are buying little or no iron, and unless they shut down, some of them will soon be forced to replenish their now almost depleted stock. It is evident from the fact that they have virtually been out of the market during the past six weeks, that their supplies of the raw material are well nigh exhausted, but it is certain that, until money matters commence to work easier, and the outlook is considerably brighter than it is just now, that they will carry just as little stock as they can possibly help. It is impossible to give accurate quotations in the present condition of affairs, but there is no disputing that shrinkage is the order of the day; choice mill irons have declined, since the panic set in from $3 to $3.50 per ton, while in the lower grades, as might be expected, the depreciation has been still greater—the former are now being offered at $30, 4 months. Foundry irons are quoted as much depressed as mill irons, and the shrinkage in value has been just as great, if not more so. Raw Irons, if we mistake not, are lower now than they have been since before the war, or possibly, during the panic of '57, when, so we are informed, they dropped down to $18@20. It is to be hoped the market will soon recover from the panic of '73, although it must be conceded that the indications at present are not very promising; although it is well to bear in mind, however, that the darkest time is just before daybreak.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 7, 1873.

The market for both Crude and Refined continues very dull and depressed, owing in part at least to the unsatisfactory and complicated condition of financial matters, but it is hoped that there will soon be a change for the better. Crude reported weak and nominal at 95@$1.00 per brl. at Parker, equal to about 3½c per gallon delivered here. Refined, to use a common phrase, is as flat as a flounder; there seems to be no inquiry for either present or future delivery, and there is not enough doing to establish quotations, however, there is no spot oil to sell in this market and refiners generally are pretty well sold up for this month—some of them have contracts for all the can make during the balance of the year.

Oil barrels dull and offering freely although prices are not quotably lower; we continue to quote at $2.00 for countries, and $2.10 for city make.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

The river continues to recede at this point slowly, with 5 feet 3 inches in the channel. A light rain set in late yesterday afternoon, and the indications at this writing are favorable for its continuance.

The arrivals include the towboats John Hanna, Grand Lake and N. J. Bigley. The Granite State, for Portsmouth, was the only departure.

The Messenger will take her departure for St. Louis to-day without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

"Paragon" has been selected as the name of Captain Darragh's new steamer, and it is expected that she will be completed about the 1st of next month.

The Juniata, from Cincinnati is the first boat due.

—Yesterday's Cincinnati Gazette says: Business in the upper packet trades is decidedly dull. The R. W. Skillinger reports the manufacturies inactive at Wheeling, and that competing steamers had been carrying nails for 10 cents. Other packets report Pomeroy as the business point on the upper Ohio, that the manufactories at Ironton had stopped, and that business was stagnant at other points....The Cherokee made a trial trip up and down the river yesterday, and came to the wharf in fine style. She is pronounced by competent judges to be one of the best boats ever built here. She will load for New Orleans next week....Last Sunday the Babbage was lying at the head of Natchez Island, having broken a key and piston, and threw her piston overboard. She probably goes back to New Orleans for repairs....Passengers down on the Ohio No 4 report the Charlie Bowen high and dry at Twelve Pole, with the river falling...The Charley Brown passed up yesterday with three barges ore and five empty barges...The Lioness No. 2 passed up with two barges ore and five empty barges....Quarantine has been raised at Shreveport, and all points in Texas...Gallipolis collected $84 wharfage last week.

—The St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday says: Shipments were dull for the South, but is anticipated to be more animated to day. Three boats and a tow of barges are on berth for New Orleans, and are loading at 25c per cwt, and 50c per brl for flour.

—By reference to the action of the Senate committee, convened at the Southern hotel, as published in the St. Louis Republican of Saturday last, the Hon. Henry T. Blow, when being interrogated by the committee as to the wants of the country and the demands of commerce, touching the navigation and improvement of the Mississippi River by the Government, made the following remarkable statement in answer to a question put by the committee as to what he knew about combinations of steamboat owners: "It seems to me," he said, "they are behind in everything necessary to great enterprises. Under the old system of transportation, they have great overgrown steamers that are useless, and ought to be burned up—they are no use to anybody. There are the hundred of these overgrown tubs floating around."

—The St. Louis Times of yesterday says: There is heavy ice in the Mississippi at St. Paul and the Missouri is blocked in the neighborhood of Sioux City. How long it will be before the ice king will shut down on us here remains to be seen. Two years ago the last boat left on October 22, but was caught and frozen in at Twin Hollow, where she remained several days when a warm spell softened the ice, and she got out, but the river closed again in a few days, and remained shut several weeks. Rates to New Orleans are lower, 50c a barrel for flour, and 25c per 100 lbs for pound freight are the figures now. There was little offering for New Orleans yesterday. The city is full of orders, but merchants see no money, and they refuse to sell on credit. The Lady Lee opens the new Red river line, and will leave the last of the week.

—Steamer Key West left Bismarck 14th, and arrived at Sioux City November 1st. Met the following steamers: Nellie Peck, October 10th, at Standing Rock. Josephine, 24th, at Rees Tow Head. Far West at Powers' Island, on the 25th. Silver Lake at Yankton Agency Cliffs, on same day. Arrived at Yankton on the 26th, 12 days out from Bismarck. We experienced much stormy and cold weather on our way down, which caused us much delay. Left Yankton 26th, ran through ice all day 31st, with some places nearly closed.

—Captain T. G. Ryman is building a boat for the Upper Cumberland river trade. She was launched the other day at Brownsville, and is being hurried to completion. The boat is 160 feet, beam 31 feet forward and 33 feet aft, hold four and a half feet, cylinders 15 inches in diameter, 5 feet stroke. She is furnished with 3 boilers, 36 inches in diameter, 18 feet long, with four flues.

—The Sioux City Journal of last Saturday says: The river was full of large floating cakes of ice yesterday morning. The steamer Key West is still bucking sandbars somewhere between this city and Yankton. Thursday evening she was reported about seventy miles above here.

—Tuesday's Memphis Avalanche says: Capt. D. Broadhurst is sick with fever, and last evening was quite low. He left the city some time ago to get clear of Yellow Jack, came back last Friday, took sick Saturday, and is now critical.

—The Silverthorn goes into the Evansville and Cumberland river trade as soon as there is business.

—Cotton is being shipped from Shreveport to New Orleans at $1.50 a bale; passage, $10.

A Boy Does a Little Shooting.

On Thursday morning Johnstown was treated to a mild shooting sensation. A young girl named Belinda Lowry, employed in a house on Market street, where she was scrubbing the stairs, when Daniel Ferguson, a lad twelve years of age came in with a revolver, of which two barrels were loaded. The girl accused him of "smouching" a pie, which the young man vehemently denied, and at the same time cocking the weapon, and saying, "I'll shoot you." The girl said "you wouldn't surely," when he drew a bead and fired. The bullet entered the girl's cheek, passed through her palate and into the stomach. The girl is in a very critical condition, and the boy is sorry now. There has been no effort made to arrest the boy.

Surveys.

A meeting of the Survey Committee of Councils was held yesterday afternoon, Mr. Fleming in the chair. The following business was transacted: The City Engineer was ordered to make the following grade surveys: Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth streets, Carnagie, Keystone, Duncan, Celandine, Camelia and McCandless avenues and Kent, Lewis and Kendall streets. The plan of Ormsby and Phillips plan of lots in the Twenty-seventh ward was approved. The sub committee on Sylvan avenue reported that they had found an error in the profile, and that they could not come to a conclusion as to change of grade until a survey was made and the grade marked on the ground. The report was accepted, the committee continued, and the engineer was directed to make the proper surveys. Adjourned.

Authority Desired to Divide an Estate.

Alexander M. Watson, Solicitor for George Kaiser, filed a bill in equity yesterday in the District Court against Sarah Kaiser and Henry Kaiser, minors, over fourteen years old, and children of Sarah Kaiser, deceased, devisees of Gorge Ramsley. The bill sets forth that the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of four-sixths of a piece of land in East Deer township, containing about fifty seven acres, and as tenant by courtesy, he has a life interest in the remaining two sixths, having been the husband of Sarah, who was one of the devisees. He is desirous of having partition of the land, and avers that his enjoyment of the premises in common with Sarah and Henry Kaiser is unprofitable, inasmuch as he cannot sell and make deeds in severalty. In order that a just and equitable petition may be made, the plaintiff asks the appointment of guardians ad litem for the minors, upon whom process shall be served, and a commission issue to separate the lands and make the proper allotments. The Court appointed Archibald Pillow, Esq., guardian ad litem.

THE SYPHON PUMP.

Who Owns the Patent—The Court Called Upon to Settle the Dispute.

Yesterday morning counsel for Mr. Hugh Coll, filed a bill in equity in the District Court, against W. J. Sheriff, W. J. Loughrey and J. B. Sheriff, in which the request was made for the appointment of a master to take testimony in reference to the differences between the parties named in the bill. The paper, in substance sets forth, that plaintiff in April, 1870, sold one half of his interest in an improvement on steam syphon pumps to the defendants—they agreeing to make the pumps and return quarterly reports of sales—the plaintiff to have one-half. In July, 1872, another agreement was entered into by by which the plaintiff assigned to the defendant all his right and claim to the letters patent for the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia, and for no other places. In reference to the second agreement, the defendants were to render a statement of all sales up to July 1st, 1872, and make a settlement within thirty days after July, 17th, 1872.

In both of these agreements, the allegation is, the defendants failed and the plaintiff claims that the books will show large sales and considable money due him.

The usual preliminary order was issued.

"THE PENNA. COMPANY."

A Street Rumor Exploded—The Financial Standing of the Company.

Among the wild rumors that were out yesterday afternoon, was one to the effect that the Pennsylvania Company had allowed some of its paper to go to protest. One of our representatives, hearing the statement, made diligent inquiry as to the source from whence it emanated, but the search was unsuccessful. No one could be found willing to acknowledge the paternity of the rumor. Continuing his investigations the Knight of the Quill disturbed the evening meditations of J. P. Henderson, Esq., the fiduciary agent of the company, by calling at his residence in Allegheny, and stating what "they say" had circulated.

"I don't think it's true," remarked the gentleman interrogated, significantly.

"I supposed, Mr. Henderson," remarked the scribe, "you would know."

"Well, yes," reflectively responded the offical, "I rather think I would, especially as that is in my department. I think it is not true, for the simple reason that paper which isn't due couldn't well be protested."

"How's that?" inquiringly remarked the interviewer.

"Well, it's this way. The Pennsylvania Company has only two pieces of paper that fell or will fall due in all this month. One of these fell due on the 2d, and was paid. The other falls due on the 10th, and I remitted to-day for that."

"Well, then," musingly murmured the scribe, "I guess 'they say' 's mistaken again."

"Further than that," continued Mr. Henderson, "the Pennsylvania Company thus far has moved along all right, and expects to go on lifting its paper as it falls due, as it has always done."

The scribe, satisfied at the explosion of another canard, withdrew.

A SHARP TURN ON TURNER.

A Quick Response to His Epistolary Wail—A Chance to Vindicate.

That excellent Scriptural injunction concerning a "still tongue" might have been very profitably obeyed by Mr. J. K. Turner, the Titusville lawyer, who recently was released from imprisonment, and followed up his restoration to freedom with an epistolary effusion in the Courier a few days ago. In that epistle he managed with impartiality to pay his respects to the newspapers, to the United States Court, juries, attorneys and all, in a rather high flown and facetious way that attracted general attention. As the burden of his strain, however, was that he had not received proper treatment—hadn't had an opportunity to explain away the mysterious transactions for which he was sentenced fourteen years to the Penitentiary—the United States authorities here were touched with a feeling of tender sympathy for him, and became desirous that he should have another chance. They managed it at last, for among the eight indictments found against Turner, there was one which had not been prosecuted—had been held over. This indictment charged him with forging an oath of allegiance and with uttering the same, and as it contained the gist of the criminality alleged against him, the opportunity for an explanation was open. To further this plan yesterday by instructions Deputy Marshall Crouse, of Titusville, called upon Mr. Turner with a free pass to Pittsburgh, and the twain started for this city in the afternoon.

Mr. Turner, it is said, will be granted a "full swing" for an explanation at the next term of Court.

Mr. Turner arrived in the city last evening, and was accommodated with a berth at Warden Smith's, on the Hill.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Requisition for the Payment of the Hospital Site—A National Convention of Health Boards and a National Sanitary Bureau.

The Board of Health held a special session yesterday afternoon, to consider a draft of the plot of ground recently purchased by the Board, in the Thirteenth ward, for a hospital site. In the opinion of the City Solicitor it would be inadvisable for the Board to make a requisition now on councils for the amount of money necessary to pay for the property, owing to the great stringency in the money market. He suggested that the requisition be postponed until about the first of January, when councils would be better able to make provision for the payment of the amount. The suggestion was adopted by the Board.

The Health Officer was instructed to have printed one thousand blank certificates for returns of births, deaths and marriages.

Two circulars were received from the Board of Health of the District of Columbia in relation to a National Convention of Health Boards, and the organization of a National Sanitary Bureau. The first named circular contained the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Board it is desirable that a Convention, representing the Health Boards of the United States, should be assembled for the purpose of consulting upon the various subjects connected with the conservation of the public health, and the most efficient means of accomplishing the great purposes contemplated in their appointment.

Resolved, That the Committee on Correspondence be instructed to correspond with the various Health Boards in the United States with a view to the assembling of such convention to be held in the City of Washington on the 21st day of January, 1874, and report to the Board the result of said correspondence.

It was decided to appoint a committee of five to attend the convention.

Chairman Gross was notified to express the approval by this Board of the following resolution contained in the second circular:

Resolved, That this Board cordially approves the organization by Congress of a National Sanitary Bureau, for the purpose of collecting and diffusing information upon all subjects relating to public hygiene, and that the Committee on Correspondence be instructed to communicate with leading sanitarians throughout the country invoking their co operation in securing suitable legislation looking to the accomplishment of so desirable an object.

REV. FRANCIS MACARTNEY, of the Baltimore Conference, well known to the older members of the Pittsburgh Conference, died in Baltimore, October 7th. He had spent over fifty years in the itinerancy, and at the time of his death was in charge of the Seamen's Bethel.

WORK is rapidly progressing on Centenary M. E. church, corner of Kirkpatrick street and Wylie avenue, this city, R. Hamilton, pastor. The building will soon be ready for the roof. As soon as the main audience room is fit to occupy the lecture room will be fitted up and a series of meetings begun.

THE Methodist Recorder says: "The murderer, Stokes, has, by his last new trial, been found guilty of amiable manslaughter. One or two more new trials would have leveled him up into political respectability, and possibly elected him a member of the New York City Council. Try a murderer about six times in Gotham, and he becomes a hero!"

ON to-morrow morning, in the Emory M. E. Church, East Liberty, the pastor, Rev. W. F. Davidson, will preach on the "The Cause, Cure and Lessons of the present Financial Panic." In the evening, in the same Church, Miss Jane E. Weeden, a Quakeress, will represent the National Peace Society.

THE Dorcas Society of the M. E. churches will be reorganized for the winter in Christ M. E. church next Tuesday afternoon. The society has been a power for good heretofore, and it is to be hoped that it will take a fresh lease of vigorous life for the coming winter. The meeting is called for two o'clock.

THE corner-stone of the Reformed Church about to be built at Fountain Mills, Westmoreland county, Pa., will be laid to-morrow. Services will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock, and also in the afternoon at half-past three o'clock. The pastor, Rev. L. B. Leasure, will be assisted on the occasion by adjacent ministers of the Reformed Church.

AT the recent National Convention of local preachers it was decided to present the Secretary, W. H. Kincaid, with a neat testimonial as an evidence of their personal regard for him, and also in recognition of the labor and time required to prepare the book on the Embury Monument ceremonies. The nature of the testimonial has not yet been decided upon.

THE Christian Advocate, speaking of Mayor Kalbfleish's breach of promise case, says: "No woman who feels the sacredness of such an obligation will carry the infringement of it before the courts as she would a matter of dollars and cents. It is the custom of doing so, now so frequent, together with other things of the kind, which has robbed marriage of much of its sacredness."

THE Monongahela Methodist (non-Episcopal) Ministerial Association will convene at Pleasant Valley Chapel, Murdock's Cross Roads, Monongahela circuit, Pittsburgh District, on Wednesday, Nov. 26, 1873. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. Wm. West, at 10½ o'clock A. M. All the pastors, unstationed ministers and superintendents belonging to this part of the work will meet at that place.

A MEETING of the Presbytery of Allegheny was held on Tuesday of last week, to consider an application from a number of people in the borough of Rochester, Beaver county, for the organization of a Presbyterian Church. The propriety and need of such an enterprise was admitted by all, and a committee was appointed to consult with these parties concerning a location to report at the next meeting of Presbytery.

THE New York Christian Advocate says; "W. H. Kincaid has been appointed to take charge of the bureau of correspondence and edit matters furnished by the District and Conference Associations, and other items relating to the work of local preachers generally. Secretaries of District and Conference Associations and local preachers will bear this in mind, and send such information to his address, Lock Box 367, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Our Church Paper (the Reformed Church organ here) says: "A little affair is reported of Brother Hoffheins. At his weekly meeting he found a note on the pulpit desk. He opened it and found notes inside. It was so note-able that he counted them together, and the proceeds there, and in another little affair of the evening, footed up to about forty dollars. Blame it on the ladies. They have ways and rights of their own; and many will say they are in favor of such rights."

AT the recent meeting of the Pittsburgh Synod of the Reform Church, the state of the church in the bounds of the Synod was shown by the following statistical summary: One Synod, 6 classes; 59 ministers, 133 congregations, 10,276 confirmed members, 8,636 unconfirmed members, 1,944 baptisms, 583 confirmations, 267 received on certificate; 11 excommunicated, 137 dismissed, 580 deaths, 194 sunday schools, 5,845 Sunday school scholars, $11,157 for general church benevolence.

THERE will be preaching every night next week, in the North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, Rev. Dr. C. A. Holmes, pastor. The services will be conducted by ministers of different denominations. The full programme has not yet been completed, but it is announced that Rev. Dr. W. D. Howard, (Presbyterian) will preach Monday night; Rev. B. F. Woodburn, (Baptist, Tuesday night; Rev. Dr. John Williams, (Methodist) Wednesday evening. The other announcements will be made during the week.

ON Wednesday, 5th inst., Calvary Church, Townville, was consecrated by Bishop Kerfoot, assisted in the services by Rev. Lewis, of Meadville, A. Kerfoot, of Pittsburgh, A. Purdon and S. S. Chevers, of Titusville. This church owes its origin to the zeal and self-denying labors of a Christian lady, who some time since opened a Sunday school. By degrees a congregation was gathered, others became interested, and now the church is complete. Services from time to time will be conducted by the Episcopal clergymen of Titusville and Meadville.

A BAPTIST Missionary Convention will be held in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, commencing on Tuesday evening, December 11th, in Sandusky street Baptist Church, Allegheny City. The sessions of Friday morning and Friday afternoon will be held in the Fourth avenue Baptist Church, Pittsburgh. Interesting papers will be read by Rev. J. S. Hutson, Mr. H. Kirke Porter, Rev. A. J. Bonsall, Rev. A. Shadrach, Rev. C. E. Barto, Rev. B. F. Woodburn, Rev. Terry Stevens, and Mrs. R. W. Pearson. Adresses and other exercises are also marked on the programme.

TO MORROW evening the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A., of this city, will be held in the Third Presbyterian Church. Addresses will be made by Rev. Dr. Geo. P. Hays and R. W. Pearson. This meeting will be an interesting one to the Christian workers and the young men of our city. On the afternoon of the same day, at four o'clock, a prayer meeting will be held at the rooms of the Association, according to the recommendation of the National Executive Committee, that this day be observed throughout the whole land as a day of prayer for Christian Associations.

A CENTRE AVENUE AFFRAY.

A Stabbing Affair Last Evening.

Last evening between eight and nine o'clock a row occurred between colored men in Thos. Richardson's saloon, No. 85 Centre avenue. The row assumed some proportion, but was partially quelled, and the party, of which most of them were decidedly drunk, adjourned to another place—Charles Hall's, corner of Robert street and Centre avenue. Hall, who is also colored, had been out drinking with a colored man named Daniel Webster. This last party got into a dispute here with another, and was about to strike at him, when Hall seized Webster and put him on the street. The latter became perfectly furious at this time, and pulling out a long bladed pocket knife, lunged at Hall, whom he succeeded in cutting in two different places—the left leg and thigh. Both wounds are by no means serious, though they are deep. After doing the cutting, Webster was secured by officer John Gilson, who, with the assistance of some citizens succeeded in getting him to the Eleventh ward station house. Here the greatest trouble was experienced with the prisoner. He raved like a perfect madman. After he was locked up he tore his clothes into shreds, and broke one of his legs—it's a wooden one, in trying to get out of his cell. After a while he quieted down and fell asleep, and about midnight when he woke up he did not remember anything about the fuss. Hall when he was cut repaired to Dr. Ahl's drug store, where he procured some sticking plaster and dressed his wounds. He played the music for a dance last night, which is sufficient proof that he was not very seriously cut.

THE HIGH SCHOOL.

A Conclusion Reached by the Investigating Committee.

Yesterday afternoon the Special Committee having in charge the investigation of certain charges preferred against the management of the High School in some of its departments, arrived at a conclusion and prepared their report for presentation at the meeting of the Central Board of Education, which is to be held next Tuesday. It will be remembered that the Committee spent an afternoon in taking testimony about two weeks ago, and their decision is looked to with considerable interest. The members of the Committee are very reticent as to the conclusion reached, but it is now pretty generally known that their report is quite voluminous, and enters into the matter in detail, the general result being, it is said, favorable to the Institution. The document, in all probability, will be signed by all the members of the Committee who acted (one of the five who was appointed not having put in an appearance at any time). The Committee desire to keep their report for presentation to the Board before it is published, but what has been stated will be found to be in accordance with its general tenor.

A TOUCHING LETTER.

The True State of Affairs at Memphis.

We are permitted to publish the following most touching letter, descriptive of the state of things at Memphis, resulting from the malignant epidemic by which that city has been scourged. It is addressed to Dr. Spalding, Rector of St. Peter's church, in this city, by an Episcopal clergyman of Memphis:

MEMPHIS, October 27, 1873.

Rev. H. W. Spalding, D. D.:

MY DEAR DOCTOR: I gratefully acknowledge receipt of your kind letter of the 21st, covering check for $75. The money will be applied as directed. If our friends abroad could know how their loving sympathy and their substantial aid has helped us to weather this tempest, I am sure they would thank God for putting it into their hearts to come to our relief. No one who has not seen the frightful distress we have had, or a like distress, can have any idea of it. It did not creep upon us by degrees, to prepare us for it, or enable us to prepare for it, but it swept upon us like a tornado, and struck down thousands, appalling the hearts of the strongest and driving from the city a large majority of the population. Such of us as remained were without organization and without money. The "Howard Association" was formed days after the disease had begun its work. It had no nurses, and from want of experience and drill, it could do little. Our citizens contributed about one thousand dollars per diem for about two weeks, hoping to continue the struggle without asking aid from others. But by this time, it became apparent that the disease was rapidly gaining ground. Our city had no money and no credit. Our banks were closed and there was no time for negotiation. The panic which resulted from a realization of the situation, was as great as that which followed the first announcement of the fever. We were obliged to ask for help,—and generously has that help been given. When whole blocks and streets were full of sick people, crowded tenement houses with not a well person in them,—in many cases half he family dead and the other half dying in a single room, little children calling upon their dead parents for bread and the baby tugging at the breast of its dead mother! What could a few brave hearts do but ask for help? The liberal gifts from the Government and from our friends elsewhere enabled our Relief Committee and Howard Association to feed a very large number of destitute people, to command from New Orleans, Mobile, Natchez, and other places a large number of trained yellow fever nurses, and they gave heart and strength to such as were disposed to work.

The clergy of the Church have had their hands full and were well nigh broken down, when ten days ago they had the satisfaction of welcoming the Rev. Dr. Lord and the Rev. Dr. Sansom, both of Vicksburg, and Rev. Wm. Phillips, of Pass Christian, to share the burden. Two of our number are at this moment down with the fever, Rev. Dr. White, of Calvary church (who is doing well), and the Rev. Mr. Wager Dacon, belonging to the cathedral, whose condition is critical. The Protestant Sisters of St. Mary, four in number, arrived from New York about the beginning of the epidemic, and, notwithstanding their want of acclimation, they have gone bravely into the worst of it. They get as many sick calls as any clergyman in the city, and they go about among the sick and the dying like any angels divinely sent. All sorts of people recognize their mission, and recognize through them the mighty leverage of practical charity. Roman people on the one hand and sectarian people on the other, freely use the services of these fearless women. And they all dispense through them the contributions of food to the sick and the destitute. This unspeakable distress has been to the Church a great opportunity—an opportunity which, I think, has not been lost.

After a heavy strain of six weary weeks, we begin to breathe freer in the hope of an early termination to the epidemic. There are still about a thousand sick, but few cases are occurring, and we think that ten days more will relieve us of the pestilence. The number of orphans is not yet fully ascertained, the children being in some cases picked up for servants by unauthorized persons, but we are gathering them up daily, and I think we may eventually find out that four hundred children are to be cared for by the different asylums of the city. For these we shall need help all winter. For the rest, not much more, if anything will be required. The Relief Committee and the Howards have money, and with an effective organization, are doing a noble work. It would take a better pen than my old quill to tell of the real heroism shown in this pestilence by every class of our people, and especially by our young men. Without the inspiring accompaniments of "glorious war" they have yet marched into danger and stood there day and night, each man at his post, till the days have lengthened into weeks and the weeks have almost grown into months. Some—many—have fallen who might have lived to fight another day, had they not chosen to stand, but their places are filled on the instant. The work still goes on, and under the blessing of God, will go on to the end. We are not cast down. We are not overcome.

Yours faithfully
GEO. C. HARRIS.

THE COURTS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

[Full Bench—Chief Justice Read, presiding.]

Hays vs. Briggs; lateral railroad case. Error to the District Court of Allegheny county. Argument continued by Robert Woods, Esq., for defendant in error, and by George P. Hamilton, Esq., for plaintiff in error. These two gentlemen occupied nearly the entire day.

A QUESTION OF AGENCY.

Atkinson & Haigh vs. George W. Coffin. Error to the District Court of Allegheny county. Argued by Weir for plaintiffs in error, and Brown contra. The plaintiffs in error, who were defendants below, were the owners of certain property called the Dry Run Coal Works, located in Washington county. In February, 1869, they appointed Joseph P. Haigh, their agent, to superintend the works, and afterwards, to limit his powers as agent, they executed and delivered to him a written power of attorney, which defined his authority. In pursuance of this authority, he continued to act as the agent in the management of the works, and on June 4, 1870, without the knowledge and consent of his principals, borrowed from G. W. Coffin, who was plaintiff below, $600, and gave their note for the same, executed by him as agent. When the agent got the money, he told Coffin he had no power to borrow it, and no authority to give the note. This was not denied by Coffin when he took the stand as a witness in his own behalf. Afterward, when the plaintiffs in error discovered the transaction, they denied that their agent had any such authority, and refused to pay the note, whereupon Coffin brought this suit. A verdict for plaintiff was rendered for $698, which led to the filing of a writ of error, with exceptions taken to the Court's rulings.

Criminal Court.

[Before Judge Stowe.]

In the case of John Voelker and Samuel M. Fulton, indicted for an assault and battery, nolle prosequi was allowed on payment of costs by defendant.

A nolle prosequi was also allowed as to Samuel M. Fulton, charged with assault and battery by Samuel Staley. The defendant paid the costs in each case.

The next case was that of the Commonwealth vs. Julius Steiner, indicted for aggravated assault and battery on Rachel Steiner. The prosecutrix testified that on the 27th of August last, she was aroused about midnight by a noise in the kitchen, and on going below found her husband had just entered the house in an intoxicated condition. As she made her appearance at the foot of the stairs he insulted her and said he had sold out the place—a saloon on Middle avenue, Allegheny,—and that she and her children would have to get out or he would have a constable to put them out. The wife told him to go to bed and sober off, and in the morning he could talk to her. When this advice was given, she alleges he struck her a blow on the neck and felled her, and while she was prostrated on the floor kicked her in the eye. She managed to regain her feet, and seized a poker to protect herself, when the husband kicked her in the side, and had just raised a chair to strike her, when one of the children appeared in the room, and he dropped the chair and quieted himself. The defendant's statement, however, was that the wife came down stairs, and, without any provocation, knocked him down with a poker and dragged him twelve feet, when he became insensible. (Steiner's weight is about one hundred and fifty or one hundred and sixty pounds.) He had just recovered himself and got on the chair when the child entered the kitchen. The jury returned a verdict of simple assault.

Commonwealth vs. Alexander Harper and Ann Harper, indicted for forcible entry and detainer, on oath of Joel L. Bigham, is on trial. The defendants are charged with taking forcible possession of the western half of three lots belonging to the prosecutor, on Mount Washington.

PROPOSED POINT BRIDGE.

Another Meeting Last Night at Odd Fellows' Hall in Temperanceville—Appointment of Finance, Business and Citizens' Committees—Remarks from Members—Placing the Bonds—The Delegation to be at Monday's Council Meeting.

Another meeting of the citizens of Temperanceville and vicinity was held last night to take further action in regard to the bridge that it is proposed to erect over the Monongahela river at the Point. Odd Fellows' Hall was comfortably filled with those who feel that they have something at stake, and that the interest felt in the question is not confined within the limits of the city, was shown last evening by the presence at the meeting of a number of the solid men of the adjoining townships, who are willing to contribute of their means toward the rearing of the structure. An organization was effected by calling Mr. E. R. Donahoo to the chair and electing Mr. Joseph Dorrington Secretary. The former, in accepting the honor of being chosen as the presiding officer of the meeting, made a brief speech, in which he urged the vital importance of energy and activity and hard work toward the accomplishment of the object for which they were laboring. That a bridge across the river was an imperative necessity could be denied by none, and if the people expected to see it stretching from shore to shore they must display interest in the matter.

On motion of Mr. Weaver, a Finance Committee, consisting of the following gentlemen, was appointed: John Hollingshead, Mr. Bell, Colonel Ballantine, Thomas Hershberger, Joseph Lemmer, Dr. Graham, P. Weaver, William Fleming, Robert Smith, A. Oberhelman and John Appel. The Chairman suggested that the committee go to work at once, as money was needed as much to-day for incidental expenses as it would be next week. Acting upon the suggestion, the committee commenced soliciting in the audience, and in about five minutes the sum of nearly one hundred dollars was subscribed.

A motion by Mr. Dorrington that a business committee, consisting of E. R. Donahoo, W. C. Taylor, David Robinson and Adam Weaver be appointed, was carried.

A Citizens' Committee, consisting of the following persons from the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth wards was appointed to be present at the meeting of Councils on Monday, and use all their influence to procure the passage of the ordinance providing for the bridge:

- Capt. J. W. Ballantine,
- Adam Weaver,
- John P. Vierheller,
- Dr. J. N. Boggs,
- M. Rodgers,
- John Beck,
- Dr. M. P. Hays,
- James Martin,
- John Graham,
- Robert Hemlup,
- Louis Auris,
- James McBride,
- Julian Maddocks,
- J. S. Hollingshead,
- John Pedder,
- Wm. Gracy,
- Felix Nagley,
- Wm. E. Brandon,
- Adam Wagner,
- David Edward,
- John Hodgson,
- Christian Beamer,
- S. P. Ross,
- Dr. Stevenson,
- S. G. Sproul,
- G. Haller,
- Joseph G. Rodgers,
- L. S. Jack.
- Thos. P. Hershberger,
- Thos. Ralph,
- P. O'Hanlon,
- D. Robinson,
- John V. Auth,
- W. C. Taylor,
- Robert Smith,
- John Vaughn,
- Matthew Grier,
- Wm. Bond,
- John Appel,
- Capt. Wm. Irwin,
- George Holliday,
- Henry Weaver,
- Henry Esplin,
- N. Ferguson,
- Chas. Havis,
- Andrew McCartney,
- John Schneller,
- Peter Carlin,
- Finley Torrens,
- N. Haller,
- Thos. Fox,
- Geo. Wittingill,
- C. Patterson,
- James Dorrington,
- J. B. Allison.

Michael Rodgers gave his opinion in regard to the way the affair ought to be managed, but it evidently did not coincide with the views held by those present, and as a consequence his speech was devoid of influence. He did not think the citizens should take any interest in the matter, but that it should be left entirely to the members of Councils from the wards interested in the bridge. In his estimation the appointment of a citizen's committee was all nonsense, and that's just where he differed with every one else present.

It was urged by a few that the names of a number of the prominent residents of the townships adjoining, who favored the bridge, should be added to the citizens' committee, and considerable discussion was had on this point, but the chairman finally decided that the committee could not be made up of other than those who lived in the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth wards, because if it was they could not go before Councils and honestly represent the delegation to be composed exclusively of citizens of Pittsburgh. He suggested that a separate delegation be made of residents of the townships, if such a course was deemed advisable.

Colonel Ballantine said that one of the objections he had heard against the bridge, and which he had been told would probably have considerable influence with Councils, was, that in the present financial condition of the country, it would be almost impossible to find a market for the bonds. Such an objection he thought was without any force whatever, as in his opinion all the bridge bonds that would be offered for sale could be readily disposed of on the south side of the river.

The President urged the Finance Committee to report as early this (Saturday) morning as possible, so that the Printing Committee could know what action to take, and there being no other business to attend to, the meeting on motion adjourned.

Western University.

On Monday next the second term for this year of this University opens, and those who have pupils to send would do well to send them at once, in order that their classification may be such as they desire. One excellent feature in this institution is that each class recites every day and each recitation is one hour long, a very great advantage over 15 to 45 minute recitations every other day, giving every pupil who has the least desire to progress, the most desirable opportunity for so doing. Special instructions are given in Analytical Chemistry, Drafting in its various branches and Civil Engineering. We do not see how any parent or guardian who values the moral and intellectual training of those entrusted to his care can send them to foreign schools where such advantages are offered them at their very doors.

To Arms.

M. T. Heckert, No 61 North Diamond, is still in the van. His suits of perfect fitting clothes are the talk of Allegheny. And it is no wonder, for there is no place in the two cities that keeps a more complete stock on hand than does this house. His stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings is really unique, and is well worth a little investigation. He will make you up a very nice suit at a very low price. Call and see him.

CRAZY WOMEN'S QUARREL.

An Insane Female in the Allegheny City Poor House Almost Kills her Room Mate—Skull Crushed by a Blow with a Chair—Great Danger of Death.

A very serious affray, that it is thought will probably result in the death of a woman, occurred some time early yesterday morning at the Allegheny City Poor Farm, up the Allegheny river, on the line of the West Penn. Railroad. When the new Poor House, that has been but recently erected, was completed, all the mild patients that were confined in the Insane Asylum at Dixmont, and the expense of whose maintenance was borne by Allegheny city, were removed to the new institution. Among the number were two women, each about forty years of age, named Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Slater. In consideration of the fact that they were not violently insane, but on the contrary appeared to be rather of a harmless disposition, they were both placed in the same room. They got along quite well together, it seems," until yesterday morning, when, it is supposed, they quarreled about something, nothing definite, however, in regard to that point being known. Mrs. Slater got out of bed for the purpose of revenge, and seizing the water bucket, one being in every room in the building, she swung it around her head, and, with crushing force, brought it down on the defenceless head of Mrs. Miller, who was lying in bed asleep, breaking her skull in a terrible manner. One blow not being sufficient to answer her purpose, the insane woman repeated it five or six times. The left side of Mrs. Miller's head presented a fearful appearance. The skull was very badly fractured, and five or six more ugly wounds were, on examination, found on different parts of the head. As no noise or outcry was made, it is believed that the first blow rendered Mrs. Miller insensible. Shortly after, the Matron was making her accustomed rounds, examining all the rooms, and when she came to the one occupied by these two women she found Mrs. Miller lying in bed and the clothes all saturated with blood, while a little stream of the life current was trickling to the floor. She procured assistance, had the woman taken to another apartment and sent to the city for Dr. B. B. Smith, the physician to the Poor Board. In company with Dr. Kirker he visited Mrs. Miller, raised the skull from its contact with the brain, and did all that he could to make her easy and comfortable. When he left her yesterday afternoon she was still insensible, and bleeding from the ears. The prospect for her recovery is by no means bright. Owing to Mrs. Slater's insanity no reliance can be placed in anything said by her, and the causes which led to the affair are in a measure left to conjecture.

HELP THE TORPID ORGANS.

When the body is in a state of health, the food taken into the stomach acts on the bowels as a stimulant, causing in them that worm-like motion by which their contents are expelled. The liver being in a natural condition, the flow of bile (which is a mild cathartic), into the intestines is ample and regular, and hence the discharges are easy and sufficiently frequent. The reverse of all this constitutes costiveness, and the only true method of cure is to restore the functional activity of the two important organs which use the bowels as a sewer for the egress of waste matter. For this purpose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters can be confidentially recommended as the most effective of all medicines. It is not too much to say that chronic constipation would be unknown if the Bitters were in universal use as a remedy in the earlier stages of the complaint. At this period of the year, when dyspepsia with all its kindred disorders are said to be engendered and aggravated by the dampness of the atmosphere, this unequalled stimulant, tonic and alterative should be taken daily.
